ABC'S OF A GOOD GOSPEL MEETING

Robert Taylor, Jr.

Attend every service (Heb. 10:25).

Bring others with you to every service (Jn. 1:40-42).

Cooperate in every capacity (Tit.3:1).

Devote yourself fully to the success of this evangelistic endeavor (Mt. 6:33).

Examine yourself in the light of each lesson presented (2 Cor. 13:5).

Faithfully receive every lesson presented as the Word of God and not as the word of men (1 Thes. 2:13).

Gather your friends and relatives together as Cornelius did in order that they might hear the Word of the Lord (Acts 10:24,27,33).

Hear with a view of believing and obeying the soul-saving messages (Rm. 10:13-15).

Investigate the lessons by a daily study of the Sacred Scriptures (Acts 17:11).

Joyfully blend your voices with other Christians in singing the sweet songs of spiritual Zion (Psa. 100:1-2; Isa. 2:2-3).

Kindly greet every person and make him welcome—especially our visitors (Pro. 18:24).

Lend encouragement for others to accompany you to worship the great God of Heaven (Psa. 122:1; Isa. 2:2-3).

Meet with Jesus and His people at each service (Mt. 18:20).

Neglect no opportunity to support the meeting in every way (Jas. 4:17).

Obey the gospel during this evangelistic endeavor if you are not already a Christian (Rm. 10:17, 10:9-10; 6:17-18; Jn. 8:24; Lk. 13:3; Mk. 16:16; Heb. 5:8,9).

Promptly be present at every service (Rm. 12:11).

Quench not the Spirit's message from the Bible as the preacher gives it at each service (1 Thes. 5:19).

Reverently participate in all phases of every service (Psa. 89:7; Heb. 12:28).

Set your mind on things above for this meeting and continue that profitable habit onward (Col. 3:1-2).

Treasure up the nuggets of God's truth which shall be spoken in this meeting (Psa. 119:11).

Utter a daily prayer for the meeting's success (Col. 4:2; 1 Thes. 5:17).

Vow to build yourself up in the faith that is most holy (Jude 20).

Worship the Lord your God at each service in the beauty of holiness (1 Chr. 16:29; Psa. 29:2).

Excuse yourself from none of these services (Lk. 14:17-21).

Yield yourself with selfless consecration and total dedication to this great effort (Rm. 6:13).

Zealously promote this good work (Gal. 4:18).
